

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL OF PSYCHOANALYSIS Summer 2020 REGISTRATION FORM

---

Summer Reading Seminar: The Biography of Sigmund Freud- “A Life For Our Time”

An 8-week summer reading seminar on Peter Gay’s definitive biography: Freud-A Life for Our Time.

Instructor: Dr. Wally Fletcher, NCPsyA

Ours are anxious times as were the times in which Freud developed his theories and techniques of psychoanalysis. Some of his most productive and socially isolated times were the years before the First World War through those leading up to the Second. Amidst these shattering and formative years, Freud’s passion for honesty, for love and for work proved indomitable and inspired the movement which has become ours to continue. Freud’s is a life for our times in ways we have yet to discover.

Come read and discover together in this summer’s reading seminar!

Objectives

1. To increase knowledge of how Freud’s biography and historical context influenced the development of his theories and techniques of psychoanalysis.
2. To prepare participants for a closer reading, understanding and appreciation of Freud’s life and work and its lasting relevance.
3. To increase awareness of the ways all psychotherapist’s perspectives and theoretical/technical preferences are shaped by biographical and historical/cultural contexts.
4. To provide an environment for dialogue in which students are encouraged to make connections between reading assignments and their own clinical and life experiences.
5. To familiarize students with the literature of psychoanalysis and how it’s reading can enrich their work.
