WEBINAR DESCRIPTION:

This course explores contemporary theories and understanding of sexuality and gender identity since Freud. It will focus on the significance of these aspects of an individual's life and how it informs therapeutic approaches.

WEBINAR OBJECTIVES (with corresponding ABAP Competencies Codes):

1. Identify and discuss the view of psychoanalysis and psychosexuality
2. Describe how therapists may experience the challenges of treating sexual problems in clinical work
3. Assess developmental research on gender identity
4. Explore the ethical concerns in the therapeutic setting, considering boundaries, bias, stereotypes, transferences and countertransferences
5. Provide opportunities for the class to discuss clinical cases and experiences through presentations
