

Psychotherapy Action Network Leadership:

Nancy Burke, PhD, ABPP, is Co-Chair of the Psychotherapy Action Network and is on the faculty of the Chicago Center for Psychoanalysis, of which she is a past president. She is an Associate Clinical Professor at the Feinberg School of Medicine of Northwestern University, immediate past-Vice-President of ISPS-US, and a Board member and Secretary of Expanded Mental Health Services of Chicago, NFP (Kedzie Center).

Linda Michaels, PsyD, MBA, is Co-Chair of the Psychotherapy Action Network, an Associate Editor of Psychoanalytic Inquiry, and a fellow of the Lauder Institute Global MBA program. She is in private practice in Chicago following a career in innovation and management consulting, working with organizations in the US and Latin America. She has also served as president of a not-for-profit performing arts organization.

In addition to her doctorate degree in clinical psychology from the Illinois School of Professional Psychology, Linda is a graduate of the Chicago Psychoanalytic Institute's Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy program. She also has an MBA from Wharton, and a BA from Harvard.

Janice Muhr, PhD, has practiced as a psychoanalytically oriented psychotherapist for over 40 years, starting in community mental health before entering private practice in Chicago and Evanston, Illinois. She received her Ph.D. from Northwestern University, where she served as adjunct clinical faculty in the Counseling Psychology Program for 18 years. She is a founding Co-Chair of Psychotherapy Action Network and serves as clinical associate faculty at the Chicago Center for Psychoanalysis.