After graduating in 1978 in the second class to graduate from the Center for Modern Psychoanalysis, with control analyses with Hyman Spotnitz and Marie Coleman Nelson, Dr. Friedman taught at 4 psychoanalytic institutes for many years. Dr. Friedman has published in several journals and book chapters including two papers in "Modern Psychoanalysis" as well as many book reviews. After spending over half a century learning to be an analyst, Dr. Friedman enjoys giving back to the profession through supervision of candidates.
